21. passage 4

Mid-autumn Day is for families to get together in China. People show their thanks for the year's harvest and pray for another year of good harvest. Moon cake is a traditional gift and food that people give each other during the festival.

Mid-autumn Day was a harvest festival long time ago. The story goes as follows.

Long time ago, there were 10 badly behaved suns in the sky. Houyi, a capable archer shot down nine of them to save the people and the earth.

The hero Houyi went to the Kunlun Mountains and gained a pill from Xi Wangmu, the Goddess of the West. Xi told him that he would never die after he took the pill. When he came back home, he gave it to Chang'e, his wife asking her to keep it safe.

While Houyi was away, an evil follower tried to steal the pill. Chang'e put it into her mouth and immediately floated to the moon. Houyi cried for the loss of his wife. He laid a table in his yard and put out some of Chang'e's favorite foods. Moon cakes are among them. People then followed and prayed to Chang'e, now a goddess to bring them happiness and bountiful harvests.

22. passage 5

The United Kingdom has various bank holidays, public holidays, traditional holidays and national events scattered across its calendar. Some date back hundreds of years, while others are more recent. Here are just a few of the typical British festivals. They are also common in many other Western countries.

St. Valentine' s Day

St. Valentine' s Day is celebrated every year on the February 14. It is the time to express one' s love and for making a proposal of marriage to one' s lover. Today, St. Valentine' s Day has become popular throughout the world, commonly known as Valentine' s Day

Halloween

November 1 is All Saints' Day in Western countries. The evening of October 31 is called All Hallows Eve, often called Halloween. Halloween is a favorite festival among kids because they can be naughty and have a lot of fun during the festival. On All Hallows Eve, children put on scary masks and clothes and walk around to trick others and often visit local houses and ask for candy. People make paper-cut Halloween ghosts, black cats and witches as symbols of Halloween.

Christmas

Originally, Christmas was a religious festival. It is the birthday of Jesus Christ, but over the years it has gradually become an international cultural holiday. Christmas is very popular in many Western countries. Christmas is normally celebrated by having a family get-together and eating a large lunch together. Even though Christmas is celebrated every year on December 25, the Christmas Season usually lasts two weeks. During this season, people write and send Christmas greeting cards around the world and exchange good wishes and greetings between people by telephone and Internet.
